

Wine Spectator

EMMANUEL DARNAUD

Crozes-Hermitage Au Fil du Temps
2010

A broad, dark style, with lots of smoldering charcoal and tobacco notes leading the way, backed by dense black currant, fig paste and plum sauce flavors. The finish lets the charcoal edge take over, along with hints of bay leaf and tar. Dense and slightly chewy, showing definition and finely beaded acidity. Drink now through 2017. 300 cases made. (Oct 15, 2014)