

Wine Spectator

EMMANUEL DARNAUD St.-Joseph 2013

Rock-solid, with a core of melted black licorice, warmed fig and mulled blackberry fruit, framed by a ganache note. Smoldering charcoal lines the finish. Just needs a little time to settle in. Best from 2016 through 2020. 300 cases made. (Nov 30, 2015)