

Saint Joseph White

« The pure expression of Marsanne on Ardèche granitic soils. This exceptional terroir naturally enhances tension and minerality. A limited production of three barrels results in a wine with great length and refined structure. »

Domaine :

Emmanuel Darnaud

21 Rue du stade
26600 La Roche de Glun
(Drôme - Vallée du Rhône Nord - France)
04.75.84.81.64
emmanuel.darnaud26@orange.fr

Appellation :

Saint-Joseph

Color :

White

Grap Varietal :

100 % Marsanne

Yield :

40 Hectoliters per Hectar

Terroir :

Granitic origin

Climate :

Continental with Mediterranean influences,
moderate precipitation

Average age of vines : Over 30 years

Viticulture :

Worked soils, manual harvesting, organically grown
(certified by Ecocert since 2023)

Vinemaking / Ageing :

Gentle pressing (pneumatic press), fermentation and ageing in oak barrels or stainless-steel tanks for 12 months. Estate bottled

Drinking window / Ageing potential :

Drink now or within 5 to 6 years. Serve at 10-12°C

Tasting Notes :

.....

.....

.....

.....